

People & Organisation

From our 2018 CEO survey, Danish CEOs indicate that are worried about availability of key skills are somewhat or extremely concerned about changing workforce demographics

are expecting to increase headcount over the next 12 months

Are you getting the most out of your talent attraction practices?

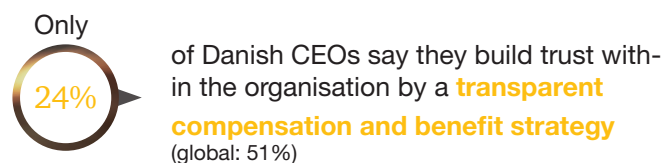

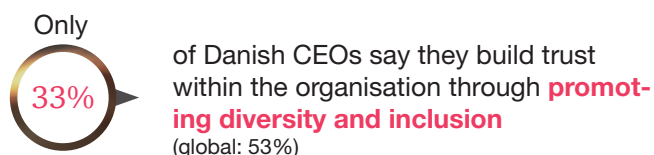

Top 3 attractive employer traits

	Female	Male
Flexible work arrangements and work-life balance culture	1	3
Opportunities for career progression	2	1
Competitive wages and other financial benefits	3	2

Another key finding from our 2018 CEO Survey is that CEOs realise that trust is the bedrock of a strong organisational culture, both in Denmark and globally

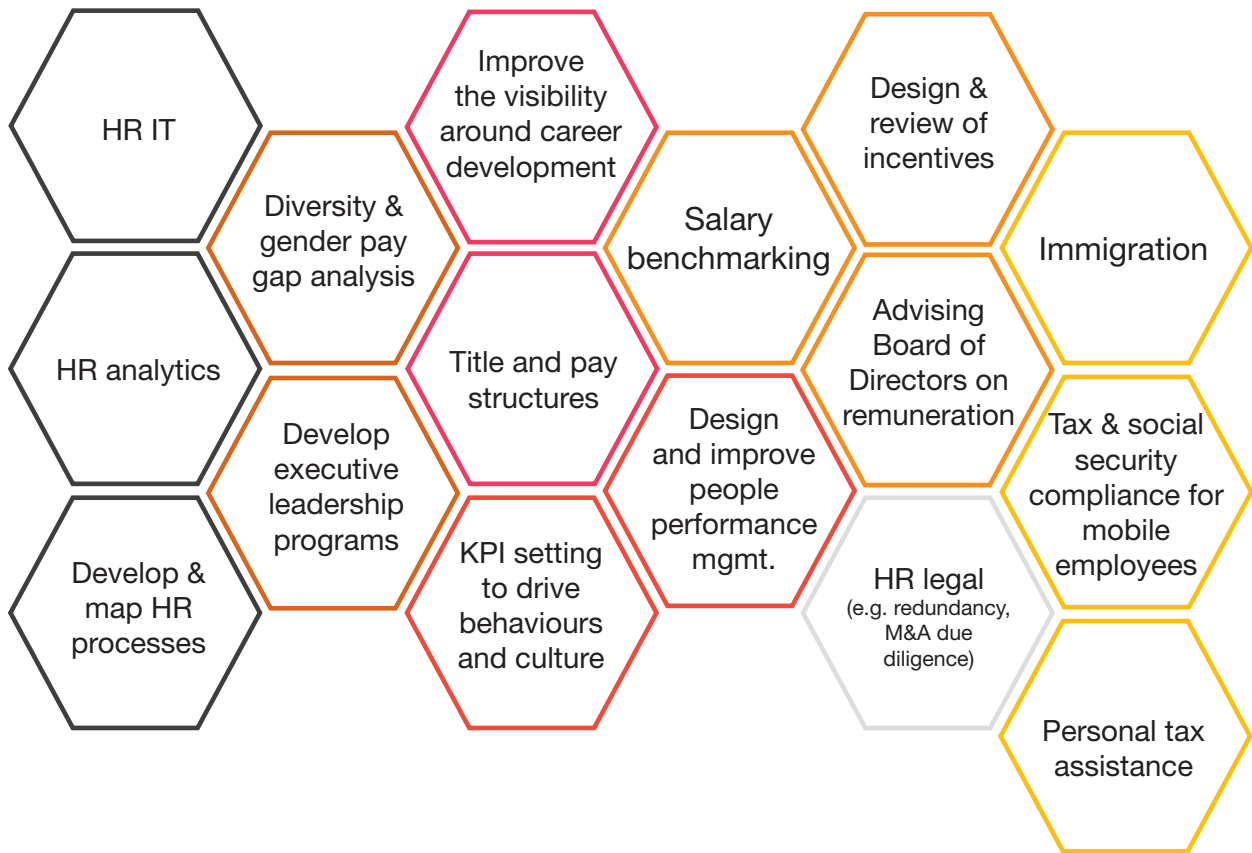

However, we also see that:

Sources: PwC's 21st CEO Survey of 55 CEOs in Denmark and 1,293 CEOs in 85 countries; Winning the fight for female talent, PwC 2017

Examples of our client work

You are welcome to contact us

Alex Penvern
Partner, People & Organisation
+45 6120 0128
alex.penvern@pwc.com

Betri Pihl Schultze Partner, Mobility & HR Legal +45 3945 9443
betri.pihl.schultze@pwc.com

Mona Lorentsen
Partner, Mobility
+45 3945 3398
mona.lorentsen@pwc.com

Claus Høegh-Jensen
Partner, P&O Reward & Tax +45 3945 3303
claus.hoegh-jensen@pwc.com

Søren Røssel
Partner, Executive Education +45 3945 9400
soren.rossel@pwc.com

Kim Domdal
Partner, People & Change
T:+45 3070 1853
kim.domdal@pwc.com

